CLUBDOM

MRS. JOHN O. FLAUIT BRINGS THREE GREAT ARTISTS HERE.

Three great artists, Oscar Scagie, Louis J. B. and Paul Althouse, have recently been added to the list of entertainers which Memphis will have the pleasure of hearing this winter, for the first time in several years. And one little woman has signed the contracts which will bring them here to sing for the benefit of her church.

It's a big thing for one woman to undertake, but Mrs. John O. Flauit, Jr., is accustomed to doing big things—and doing them well. Here is the responsibility of raising funds with which to make necessary repairs for the Court Avenue Presbyterian church, and she has wisely chosen this means of doing it. She will not only have the hearty support of all members of her church, but of every music lover in the city who will not miss this opportunity of hearing the splendid artists which she has so fortunately secured.

The first of the three concerts, which will be given in the Court Avenue Presbyterian church, as it can seat 1,300 persons, will be that of Paul Althouse, on Nov. 7, at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Althouse, as tenor with the Metropolitan Opera company, won wide recognition, and will be presented on the evening of March 1. Her voice is beautiful in quality and has a lyric power which is both beautiful and appealing.

This is the first time in the history of their brilliant careers that these three artists have consented to appear in concert for the benefit of any church.

They will be joined by the surely Memphis will give them the welcome which they deserve, and Mrs. Flauit any support which she may require.

Concert and Lawn Party.

A lawn party and concert will be given on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock by the Leroy Page Parent-Teacher association on the lawn of Mrs. C. D. Schneider, 168 Chelsea avenue.

The following program will be given: Duane-Ju-da-Cla, Schaffer and Mary O'Donnell, accompanied by Miss Christine Schneider.

Reading, "Just Before Christmas"—Lindsay Quiss.

Dances—Agnes Handwerker, Ukulele selection—Miss Claudine Echols.

Vocal solo—Miss Fuchs.

Reading, "Mammy of the North"—Mrs. L. T. Lindsay.

Hearts and Euchre.

A heart and euchre party will be given on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the Victory club at the home of Mrs. Bowles, 743 Regent place.

Woman's Missionary Society.

The Woman's Missionary society of St. John's Methodist church will meet in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. L. J. Enley and Mrs. John Gibson will act as hostesses, and the program will be under the direction of the social service committee.

All interested in the subjects under discussion are cordially invited to be present.

The program follows:

Violin Solo, "Souvenir," (Dadler), Miss Marjorie Castagnine.

"The Joy of Living," Mrs. Saaby.

"Associated Charities," Miss Russell.

"Wee Wee House," Mrs. J. U. Robinson.

"Way Outward Home," Mrs. P. S. Smithwick.

song, Miss Isabella Ransom.

THREE PAPERS HAVE NEWS WRITERS' STRIKE

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 15.—Three afternoon newspapers are today prepared to issue their editions under unusual conditions, a strike of news writers in effect.

The Morning Journal Courier last night, the afternoon edition of the three papers was not published. The editors and copy readers, while the places of street men were filled by substitutes.

The strike follows a refusal of publishers to increase wages of street and desk men. The Equity association claims that virtually all staff and street men on the four dailies here are members and had endorsed the proposal to strike in the event of the failure of the publishers to fix a definite scale of compensation.

The evening papers are the New Haven Register, the New Haven Times Leader, and the New Haven Union. Proofreaders did not strike as they are not regarded as part of a news writing staff.

SHIPYARD WORKERS WHO QUIT ARE LOCKED OUT

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Thousands of shipyard workers who quit work in Brooklyn, Staten Island and New Jersey yards last Saturday noon in an attempt to enforce a demand for a Saturday half holiday found themselves discharged when they reported for work today.

At the Morse Dry Dock and Repair company 425 men who participated in the week-end strike were told their services were no longer required. Two thousand men were reported out at the yards of James Shawman & Sons and 1,300 at the Tebo yards basin. Similar conditions were reported at the other yards. The discharged workmen have started picketing at some of the yards.
